GREEK ORPHANS VISIT BELGRADE

A group of Greek orphans, members of the "Pionir" children's organization, from Buljkes in the Vojvodina have been staying in Belgrade for the last few days as guests of the Belgrade Pioneers. At the end of their visit they will return to Buljkes.

In Smiljke the orphans who were picked up at the Greek border 2 years ago by our border officer, like many other Greek refugees in Yugoslavia, have begun a new life. The children are housed in their own building. The younger children play most of the time. The older children have their own Greek teacher and Greek books from which they learn of the valor and sacrifice of their fathers and mothers, and of the heroism of their brothers and sisters who remained in Greece. In their spare time they learn Greek folk songs and games.
